JUDGE H. S LATTIMORE VISITS IN CAMERON

Judge H. S. Lattimoe, leader by 51,000 votes in the first primary for Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, brought his runoff campaign into Cameron and Milam County Wednesday.

He met numerous citizens and expressed his appreciation for the handsome vote which this county gave him in July, Milam County giving him a substantial lead over the other candidates.

A lawyer and jurist of wide experience, Judge Lattimore has served as district judge and as justice of the Court of Civil Appeals in Fort Worth for 16 years. He is a native Texan, attended Baylor and the University of Texas, and is a World War veteran. Now in the prime of life, 48 years of age, he has the physical and intellectual vigor and capacity, his friend declare, to perform ably the duties of the office of Chief Justice.

Active in civic, church and public welfare causes, Judge Lattimore made a patriotic address before the Rotary Club of Cameron.

He is survived by one daughter, two sister: Mrs. Lizzie Bellah of Stanford, and Mrs. Minnie Cage of Kaufman; and one brother, M. M. Bright.

Citizens Want Free Mail Service Extended

Prospects for free mail delivery in sections of Cameron west and north of the Southern Pacific lines and south of the Santa Fe have aroused the citizens of those sections to appeciate the convenience and fairness of the extension.

Several days ago the Daily Herald gave the matter some space and asked citizens to write their views on the proposed extension of free delivery service. The first communication reached the office of the publishers early Monday from Miss Rose Bauer.

It is interesting to note that some of the homes are already numbered in that section of the city not yet served by free delivery service. Here is Miss Bauer's letter:

"I have noticed in the Herald the story about free mail service to this section of the city. I would be very thankful to have the mail delivered to my place. Rose Bauer, house 406, Cameron."

The Daily Herald would like very much to receive letters from other residents and proverty owners of these sections of Cameron not served by free delivery.

If the people will co-operate the sentiment can be well expressed by the Daily Herald.

The first official comment came last week fom E. O. Schiller, member of the Board of Aldermen who said that he would favor the City cooperating at once to bring about extension of free delivery mail service to all sections of the city.

Sheriff Kennedy has obtained excellent photographs of both car and truck in the wreck near Milano early Thursday morning in which three people lost their lives and seven were severely injured.

One of the photos shows the path of the truck as it crossed some four feet into the path of the passenger car. Officers here believe the driver of the truck fell asleep and when his machine topped a small hill it was too late to avoid the crash.

Near the wrecked truck is a door torn from the passenger car. Other wreckage tells a story of terrific impact.

The passenger car, lieing wheels up is in a ravine along the road some 30 feet away from the place of the collision.

The pavement was photographed to produce evidence of the cause of the collision. Sheriff Kennedy believes the machine almost crashed head on.

HOUSTON SHOOTING IS EXPLAINED BY FAMILY

The Herald recently published from a Houston newspaper an account of a shooting involving a former Cameron resident and has received the following correction from the family:

"In last week's Herald you published an article concerning Mr. J. B. McLane and the shooting in Houston. The article you published was not the true story. I'm sure it was done through no fault of yours. Mr. McLane has lots of friends in Cameron who would like to know the true story. So I am asking you to publish it, please.

"Here is the statement that was made by both Mr. and Mrs. McLane: The night before the shooting occured, when Mr. McLane locked the house for the night he failed to lock the door leading to the sun porch. So during the night some one entered the house and took $18 and some change from the room where Mr. and Mrs. McLane were sleeping. So the next night when they were preparing for bed Mrs. McLane asked Mr. McLane to go into the next room and get the pistol and put it on the bed side table in case they needed it through the night. When Mr. McLane returned he was examining the gun and it fired. Mrs. McLane was sitting on the side of the bed and the bullet entered through her left arm and into her chest. Mrs. McLane was rushed to the hospital. Mrs. McLane's wound was not very serious and she was allowed to return home in three days.

"Mr. McLane had been out of the hospital only three weeks when the shooting happened. He had been in a Veterans Hospital in Alexandria, La., where he suffered from a nervous breakdown. The day following the shooting Mr. McLane had a relapse and was carried to a Veterans hospital in Waco. His friends will be glad to know that he is recovering slowly.

"Friends as well as relatives will appresiate any article you will publish telling the truth about Mr. McLane. So please give this matter your immediate consideration."

Yours truly,
The McLane Family.

ITALY SAID TO BE INVADING LITTLE BALKAN NEIGHBOR

500 NAZIS PLANES STRAFE BRITISH ISLES

The final hour has come for Britain said Winston Churchill, Prime Minister, as Germany continued to increase air raids on the Isles.

Nazi planes, estimated at 500 attacked Britain early Monday with great damage to ports and to shipping.

There was no estimate of the losses in planes. The British claims place the number of German planes shot down at 60 in the day long bombings on Sunday. Germany claims to have destroyed 126 British planes.

Whether the increased aerial attacks on the Isles forecast the announced blitzkreig on Britain can only be guessed at. It was certain, however that air raids were becoming more frequent and more intense. The British believe the hour has struck for Hitler's war to exterminate them.

Whether the British will be able to withstand a German attack is of course a puzzle to all observers. The British seem well fortified with courage and determination. Whether equipment will be equal to German attacks remains in doubt.

The Royal Rir Force of England seems able to give a good account of itself. American flyers have joined the British and some 3000 American planes are now in the battles against the Germans.

If the news can be believed the Germans are losing many ships and had up to Monday aftenoon been driven back each successive time and beaten by the British. Nothing may be relied upon in the way of announcements from the respective governments as both claim victories.

There was a growing belief that Germany has delayed the attack on England for a reason best known to them. The longer the delay the more apparent it becomes that the Nazis have not yet felt equal to the task ahead. Meanwhile Britain continues to grow stonger.

The United States has thus far given the British little aid. The British have received a total of 2900 American planes out of 11,000 ordered since the beginning of the war.

On the whole the situation Monday appeared to be shaping up the crisis long expected. The British believe as much.

Over in the southeastern Mediterranean the Italians and Greeks were rapidly approaching a crisis in their relations. British naval bases in Greek waters and the general attitude of Greece seems responsible for the Italian displeasure.

It was likely Germany and Italy are continuing their successful diplomatic campaign to shear England of the last remaining friend in Europe.

VAST AIR WAR RAGES OVER BRITISH ISLES

If anti-Nazis feeling anywhere in the world can find a bright spot in the record of the present war it may have been in the last 24 hours, for British fighters have shown a power and in so doing wrought havoc as far away as Italy.

While the air battle raged over the English Channel and the British Isles today with claims and counter claims, the British reported capture of a German airman who said that English bombers have sown destruction over a wide area of industrial Germany and if the Royal Air Force continues this pace of destruction the war will soon be over.

From the German capital came a report that German parachute troops had been landed on the British Isles to sabotage British industry and military concentrations.

There was no mention of parachute troops from the British statements.

Germany seemed determined to blast a way through the channel for landing troops.

Shortly after 1 p. m. English time some 500 German bombing planes roared over the Isles in their fourth day of incessant bombings. Up into the thick of the battle flew equal hundreds of British fighting planes, some of them American and flown by American pilots.

Across the channel where the Germans are making heavy concentrations of troops and naval units the British bombers struck with increasing fury and according to the British view have definitely slowed up the German air attacks.

The suburbs of Berlin were bombed. This was admitted reluctantly by the Geramns.

Mile by mile the industrial area of the Ruhr and other dense business sections of Germany have been peppered by thousands of high explosive British bombs.

Flying almost 600 miles from London British bombers took the air war into the heart of industrial Italy. Over Switzerland some 50 bombers of the RAF flew into Italy doing great damage to the area around Milan. The Italians admitted the raid and said 22 civilians were killed by the bombers.

In the far east Admiral Hart of the American naval forces was speeding to Shanghai to argue with the Japanese. The Americans want to take over the territory in the international settlement evacuated by the British. The Japs insist that they will take over the territory. The developments will be interesting and may show whether American prestige is to be reckoned with or whether the Stars and Stripes are to be booted about as the British flag has been since the Japs found a soft spot in the white mans armor.

PARACHUTES IN LARGE NUMBERS ARE FOUND

Italian troops have marched into Greece and Turkey has intervened to bring a new theatre of war to Europe.

The Daily Herald learned today of this development in the Balkans but there is no official confirmation from the powers said now to be involved in this new phase of the war.

If the report proves correct Soviet Russia may be forced to march to the aid of Turkey but this is only speculative.

Relations between Italy and Turkey have been strained for years and Turkey has an alliance with Soviet Russia. Greece is bound by a mutual assistance pact to both England and France. The trouble arose over the murder of an Albanian leader. The Italians charged that England was responsible and the British are accused of attempting to start another war.

These reports were coupled with reported uprisings in Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and Denmark.

Until such time as verification is obtained the people must take these reports of the new phase of the war as premature.

Air raids continued today between England and Germany. Parachutes in great numbers have been found at separate places in England.

Winston Churchill, the British prime minister, says England is much stronger now than in May. The gravest threat to the empire is yet to come.

NEGRO FARMERS STAGE LIVE AT HOME PARADE

At 11:30 a. m. August 1st the Negro farmers of Milam county under the supervision of the Negro Agents E. A. Woods and C. L. Redus staged an Agriculture parade of floats and farmers. The parade started at the Agent's office on 8th street and ended at the Wayside Inn Park.

At 1 p. m. guest speakers C. H. Waller, State leader for Negro Extension work in Texas, Mrs. J. O. A. Conner and H. S. Estelle, District Agents, all of Prairie View College, mounted the speakers platform.

Refering to the food and feed floats, C. H. Waller stated that every variety of food and feed represented on the floats could be had by every person attending the clebration, if only an earnset effort was made to produce them.

Pointed out in the following speech by Mrs. Conner was the extensive uses that cotton materials could be put to. In the final speech by H. S. Estelle, a mention of the realization of the fact that foreign cotton markets are practically gone for ever. This he stated is due largely to substitutes for cotton and the present war.

Supporting the one idea conveyed by the parade, the three speakers recommended that for the salvation of the farmers, a complete "Live at Home" program be worked out and the necessary foods and feeds be produced on the retired acres.

A picnic dinner was served after the speaking program. Much interest was displayed in the celebration by the farmers, according to the Agents.

Approximately 700 persons attended the celebration.

$43.32 Is Premium For First 1940 Bale

Cameron's first bale of 1940 cotton brought a premium of only $43.32.

The Daily Herald learned late this afternoon the premium had been made up and although no figures are available at the moment to compare with previous years, the premium seems small in comparison with the value of the first bale and the importance of cotton to the community.

The seed from the bale brought $9.20 and the bale itself was sold for $41.77 making a total of $94.29.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 18.

The Golden Text is: "Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul" (Psalms 66:16.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Seek the Lord, and his strength: seek his face evermore . . . For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness" (Psalms 105:4; 107:9.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We cannot deny that Life is self-sustained, and we should never deny the everlasting harmony of Soul, simply because, to the mortal senses, there is seeming discord. It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony" (page 390.)

The tropical storm that swept the Texas Gulf coast was history today. Poperty damage of some two millions was reported. In Cameron cool north winds continued with cloudy skies. The wind was due to subside by Friday night.

QUIT OR BE SLAIN IS GERMAN MESSAGE

Britain will be bombed into submission said the German High Command early Tuesday.

It was the first German official admission that the long advertised blitzkreig is on.

Not only did the German government authorize the statement that the Isles are to be torn to bits by bombs from the air, but that the Reich is assembling vast naval and land forces for an invasion of the British Isles.

If the British will surrender Hitler will spare them. If they do not meet the immediate demands of the Reich the Germans will have no mercy.

"England will find their powers of resistance broken on the channel," said the German statement.

Amid conflicting claims the air ministry of both countries sought to impress their own people about the efficiency of the air war. The Germans say the British air force will crack up. Admitting loses the Germans were inclined to disregard the costs in their determination to lay waste to the Isles.

There was growing belief that the Germans will attempt to conquor Britain by air; that land forces will not be necessary.

Whether the British air force can with stand a full dress attack by the Germans remains to be seen. If the British have sufficient planes the war may be prolonged. Otherwise the English will be beaten into submission within a few days at the most, say the German sympathizers in this and other countries.

Early Tuesday the air battle was resumed. In London it was declared to be the most severe and extensive fight from the air ever undertaken. Across the straits of Dover, only 22 miles the Germans were pounding away at the chalk bluffs of Britain with long distance cannon.

The Germans claim to have laid Portsmouth in ruins and to have inflicted heavy damage all along the coast.

There was no way to tell how truthful these statements are, but it was safe to assume the battle of Britain in now on and the Germans are massing for the final blow to break down the last remaining Democratic country in Europe.

If Brtain falls the United States will be the last Democracy of consequence in the world.

"Build-Up" Relief Explained to Women

A simple method has saved many women a lot of suffering!

It is based on the fact that headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

ALBERT OWEN KILLED IN HIGHWAY ACCIDENT

(Houston Chronicle)

Capt. A. N. Owen, 58, in charge of of the Harlem state prison farm, died at St. Joseph's Infirmary at 6:40 a. m. Thursday, 30 minutes after the automobile in which he was riding alone was in collision with a heavy moving van on the Houston-San Antonio Highway.

The collision occured two miles this side of Missouri City, just inside Ft. Bend County.

According to Jack Matthews, ambulance driver for Hyde Park Funeral Home, Owen was alone in his car, a sedan, and was traveling toward Missouri City. The van was traveling toward Houston, Matthews said, and apparently the two vehicles met head on.

Jumped Ditch

After the collision, Matthews said, both machines jumped a six foot ditch and came to rest some distance away from the highway.

Captain Owen's car was demolished and he was pinned in the auto with the engine across his legs. He was taken from the car by ambulance attendants and passers-by.

He was taken to St. Joseph's in a Hyde Park ambulance.

Justice Tom Maes conducted an inquest but withheld a verdict pending invetigation by the sherriff's department.

The driver of the van was uninjured.

Drew Spotlight

Captain Owen was regarded by some prison officials as having been too kindly disposed toward convicts and in some instances too trusting. For the most part, the men he trusted lived up to the trust, his friends said, but one or two abuses brought heavy criticism.

He drew the spotlight, more than 2 1-2 years ago, when his most widely known trusty, Thomas Whiteside, former Houston lawyer, serving a long term in the death of his wife by threats, escaped from Harlem No. 1 and made his way secretly to New Orleans. Later, Whitesides, a writer for detective and crime magazines, gave up.

Subsequently to Whiteside's runaway, Captin Owen was transferred to the Eastham prison farm and afterwards to Blue Ridge. Recently he transferred back to Harlem farm.

Young Offender Aided

One youthful first offender said he was everlastingly grateful to Captain Owen's who took the youth out of the "line," where he was laboring beside hardened men, and made him a trusty. The captain remarked at the time that the boy should never have been sent to prison. The youth made an excellent record as a trusty. As soon as possible under the law, Captain Owen assisted friends of the youth in securing a parole for him. The youth now is gainfully employed and has a family.

The captain was a lover of fine horses, and horses of unusual color markings struck his fancy. When Sheriff T. A. Binford decided to retire to private life a few years ago his deputies gave him a horse with spots of unusual design, which they obtained from Captain Owen, and a specially-made saddle.

Many a wife and child of prisoners on Harlem Farm No. 1 found occasion to thank Captain Owen for sympathetic treatment of them when they came to him in destitute circumstances. When he felt there was merit in any family man in prison he did what he could to help him find a job at the term's end.

Probe Is Made

An investigation was made by Harris County patrolmen for the officers of Fort Bend County. The report, made by Deputy Sheriffs S. L. Bishop and A. A. McMurray to E. J. Buckley, chief of the records division of Sheriff Norfleet Hill's department, stated that markings on the pavement indicated that the truck swerved over to the wrong side of the road and crashed into the Owen's car.

Both truck and car went 81 feet off the pavement, with the truck pushing the car; knocked down a telephone pole and came to a stop against a railroad embankment on Captain Owen's side of the highway, the reports said. Both vehicles were demolished, it was stated.

The accident occurred 150 yards south of the Harris County line, in Ft. Bend County, the investigators said, and they made the report for the Fort Bend County authorities.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. today at Richmond, the Methodist minister, Rev. G. Z. Sadler, officiating.

Surviving are the wife; mother, Mrs. Alif Owen; three daughters, Mrs. Hazel Winston, Mrs. Alline Maresh and Mrs. Louis Milby; three sisters, Mrs. R. G. Stidham and Mrs. R. B. Rylander of Cameron, and Mrs. Ewell Jackson of San Marcos.

Pall bearers will be Rush Roane, B. C. McKnight, R. A. Bassett, P. B. Muller, Blakely Winston Buck Flanagan and Jim Cage.

50 Year Old Chair at Court House is Sent To the Repair Shop

Described as the oldest piece of furniture in the Milam county court house a solid oak swivel chair in the county judge's office was ordered to the repair shop this week by Judge Jeff T. Kemp, after being in use for fifty years.

The solid oak chair, with its leather upholstery and carved head rest, was purchased in 1890 when the court house building was completed, and has been used in the county judge's office since that time, serving eight different county judges.

The first to occupy the chair was Judge E. Y. Terrell who served for five years. Then came Sam Streetman for two years; E. B. Muse two years; Major W. M. McGregor four years; R. B. Pool for six years, John Watson for ten years; Graham Gillis for five years and Jeff T. Kemp for 19 years. Judge Kemp was elected to serve two more years in the primary election in July.—Rockdale Reporter.

INSURANCE COMPANY EXPERIENCE

In the June, 1940, number of "Trimmings," published by North & Judd Manufacturing Co., there is an interesting article that tells of the action of a large insurance company with reference to farms that it has taken over by foreclosure. Here is the item:

"A large insurance company has thousands of farms taken over by deed or foreclosure, which have been rehabilitated and rented or sold. From the reports of operations of these farms, the Agricultural Director has come to the conclusion that tractors are unprofitable, and have no place on farms of less than 160 acres. Those frams can show better incomes and higher profits if they depend on horse power.

"This conclusion should be reliable, because of the vast amount of accurate data on which it is based. If it is, it applies to approximately 5,000,000 of the 6,812,350 farms in the United States."

GERMAN AIRKREIG IS GATHERING MOMENTUM

More than 100 bomb and fighter planes were shot down in air battles over the British Isles in the past 24 hours, it was revealed today as quiet reigned along the coast of England where swarms of German bombers came over in waves of eighty late Thursday and early Friday.

There was no official estimate of the proportionate losses except that of Royal Air Force Ministry of England which claimed that more than 70 were Geman planes.

Unless the big air battle is the forerunner of the long expected blitzkreig of England there was nothing to indicate that the attack would be made at this time. Troop concentrations along the Channel were being watched and fought by British airmen.

Over in Africa both the Italians and British claim successes.

The war seemed certain to develop on several fronts with Japan in the far east moving in on French Indo China and the Dutch East Indies.

It was expected that Japan might press her claims by wars within a few hours after the Germans attack England in force.

Spain was expected to be another battle ground for Gibraltar and the Italians attacking in Africa would create a four front attack on Britain.

In Washington the nation seemed slowly moving toward preparation. President Roosevelt late Thursday was given authority to call out 360,000 National Guard troops for training. These troops under the authority given by Congress may be sent anywhere in the Americas but not to Europe.

Speculation was made over whether they may be sent to the far east where war with Japan is certain.

Two ambulances were at the Green Funeral Home to take the bodies home for burial. One ambulance went to the Cameron Hospital to remove Sarah, 12 year old girl, and last surviving member of the family, back to Dallas. She was seriously injured in the wreck.

THIRD VICTIM OF WRECK DIES HERE

W. B. Whitehurst died at 3:15 Thursday in the Cameron Hospital, third victim of an auto and truck crash on Highway 36 a short distance east of Milano at 6 a. m. Thursday.

Whitehust, badly mangled and with one leg almost severed from his body, was taken from the wrecked Chevrolet sedan in which two other members of his family met death, was given slight chance to recover by surgeons who sought to save his life by an emergency operation.

Sarah Whitehurst, 12 year old daughter of the family, badly injured is still in the local hospital, the only suriving member of a family of four. The wreck cut short an extended vacation trip. They had rested in Austin on Wednesday night and were on their way to Galveston.

Whitehurst died without knowing the fate of his wife and three year old baby girl who were killed instantly when their car was run down by a truck on the highway. The bodies of the mother and baby were at the Green Funeral Home. The body of the father was taken there late Thursday to be prepared for burial in Dallas, their home city. Whitehurst was a postal employe in Dallas.

The wreck occured a short distance east on Highway 36 out of Milano. A Dodge truck driven by Marvin Ker of LaFeria, Texas, crased the Whitehurst machine. According to information reaching the Daily Herald late Thursday the truck driver is believed to have fallen asleep, crossed over the wrong side of the highway. As the truck topped a hill the Whitehurst car was struck almost head on.

In the car with the Whitehurst family were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hogue of Upshur County, relatives of the Whitehurst family. All were seriously injured and are now in the Cameron Hospital.

Bill McGee also of LaFeria, owner of the truck, was badly injured. Alvin McLaughlin a hitch-hiker picked up at White Bluff, Arkansas, was on the truck, but escaped with only minor injuries.

Kerr, driver of the truck and Carl Hogue, both made statements to the District Attorney.
